Picasso Museum, Antibes

Arles

Arles is a city of Roman ruins, medieval heritage and Van Gogh connections. The centrepiece of the city is the two-tiered Roman amphitheatre, from which there are wonderful views. Why not follow in the footsteps of Vincent Van Gogh to see some of the scenes he painted or visit the Fondation Van Gogh Museum & Musee Reattu, which is home to works by Arles-born Jacques Reattu, drawings by Picasso, sculptures and a large collection of photographs.

Villa Ephrussi de Rothschild

The Villa Ephrussi de Rothschild is a magnificent palace surrounded by 9 thematic gardens. The villa is furnished as the Baroness left it in 1934, with priceless collections, beautiful Belle Epoque interiors, and items that belonged to Marie Antoinette. The lovely grounds are on a promontory surrounded by the azure blue sea of the Mediterranean.

Picasso Museum

Set in the Grimaldi Castle in Antibes, where Picasso once had a studio, this museum highlights vibrant works from his 1946 stay including Le Joie de Vivre and La Femmes aux Oursins, plus ceramics and sculptures alongside modern art by the likes of Germaine Richier.

Fondation Maeght

This modern art museum, located in Saint-Paul de Vence, was founded in 1964 by Aimé and Marguerite Maeght and showcases works of art by renowned 20th-century artists including Alberto Giacometti, Wassily Kandinsky, Joan Miro, Barbara Hepworth and Alexander Calder.

Arles

Granet Museum

This museum holds a significant collection of Old Masters as well as a substantial Cezanne collection and 20thC modern art. It also has sculpture & archaeological rooms. Something for everyone.

Aix-en-Provence

This bustling city was once the capital of Provence and boasts picturesque tree-lined avenues, 17th and 18th-century buildings, a wonderful old town and colourful market. Also the home of Paul Cezanne, visit the streets, places and landscapes that influenced his life and painting.

Nice

Nice has a vibrant Old Town with winding streets, colourful architecture, local shops & above all, lively markets. Most well-known is the fragrant Flower Market. Take a stroll along the famous Promenade des Anglais, known as the heart of the city, for beautiful views. Nice Cathedral lies at the heart of the Old Town and is an example of Baroque architecture. It has ten chapels and a cupola clad in colourful tiles.

Chapelle du Rosaire de Vence

This small Catholic chapel, located in the town of Vence, was built between 1947 and 1951 as is famed for Matisse's final masterpiece. Matisse designed and decorated it with stunning, vibrant stained-glass windows in contrast to simple white interiors, and black and white murals - a thank you to the nun who nursed him.
